

The Looking Glass Wars: Hatter M #2 Preview

Alice sure as hell doesn't live here anymore. Take a peek at the second issue of the frenetic miniseries.

February 7, 2006 - It's rare for a comic book to inspire people to read a novel. Have you ever read an issue of Amazing Spider-Man and suddenly had the urge to pick up Atlas Shrugged? Didn't think so. Frank Beddor has accomplished a rare feat in comics. After the first issue of Hatter M, I suddenly wanted to pick up a book without pictures. Sadly, Beddor's novel, The Looking Glass Wars doesn't hit stateside for a few more months. Though I must suffer the wait a bit longer before finally getting a crack at the novel, at least I have the bi-monthly four-issue miniseries to help pass the time.

Hatter M #2 ships this month and that means we've got a new round of preview images. If you have ever doubted the talents of Ben Templesmith or the vitality of Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland legend, take a gander at these pages. Though not sequential, this should be enough to get you off your ass and down to your comics shop to snatch the first issue of Hatter M while you have the chance.
